

Thursday, December 4th 2014
2:00–3:30pm
Campus Center, 2nd Floor, Rm 2540

Light refreshments will be served.*

Jean Edward
Nursing

Aaron Devine

Molly Exten

Megan Rutenbeck

Maureen Scully

Fall 2014 Forum Series

Center for Innovative Teaching

Pedagogical Considerations for Working with International and Other ESL Students

Panelists: Jean Edward (Nursing), Aaron Devine, Molly Exten, and Megan Rutenbeck (CAPS ESL Program), Maureen Scully Moderators: Chris Denning (CEHD), John Hess (English)

The increasing diversity of students at UMB is changing the classroom. How can instructors meet the diverse needs of all students in their classroom? This forum will focus upon pedagogical considerations for supporting international and ESL students. Topics will include: participation in the classroom, using blogs/new media to teach, teaching the writing process, and examining the need to modify exam questions.

Anyone requiring disability-related accommodations, including dietary accommodations, should go to www.ada.umb.edu and file a request form.

For more information contact: faculty.development@umb.edu