Teaching Diversity Today: Faculty Engagement on Teaching Diversity Requirement Courses

Join us as we resume a discussion on Diversity Courses -- now a 20 year old undergraduate curricular requirement. Questions that presenters will discuss include:

- What importance does the diversity requirement have in the university's preparation of educated persons and knowledgeable citizens?
- How do students respond to diversity courses in 2013?
- How do professors manage the sometimes volatile issues that surface in classroom discussion and writing in diversity courses?
